

AES 2008 Conference Proposal Form

This form is to be used for submitting a Proposal for a presentation at the AES 2008 International Conference, Evaluation: Adding Value, in Perth, Western Australia. Please review the entire form and ensure that you have all the information requested available to you prior to submitting the form. Incomplete submissions cannot be forwarded for independent peer-review.

Each presenter, whether involved alone or jointly, is limited to three presentations only.

Criteria for Assessment of Proposals

Separate criteria will be used for the assessment of proposals for conference presentations and proposals for workshops, both Pre-conference Workshops and Mini Workshops. These two sets of criteria are given below.

Assessment of Proposals for Presentations

Proposals for presentations will be assessed on the following criteria:

1. Relevance to evaluation of the focus of the proposed presentation;
2. Significance for evaluation of the issue or subject focussed upon;
3. Originality of the solution or approach taken to the issue;
4. Extent to which the proposal reflects a sound conceptual basis and argument in relation to the issue(s) addressed;
5. Extent to which the conceptual argument and research and evaluation methods used (qualitative, quantitative, analytical, etc.) are sound given the nature of the task;
6. Relevance to the overall conference theme and to one or more of the sub-themes; and
7. Significance for the aspects of evaluation represented by the conference theme and sub-themes.

Where a proposal for a presentation does not directly address one of the conference themes acceptance and scheduling decisions will be based upon Criteria 1 to 5 together with the overall purposes of the Conference.

Assessment of Proposals for Workshops

The criteria for the assessment of workshop proposals are the following:

1. Relevance to evaluation of the focus of the proposed workshop;
2. Significance for evaluation of the particular knowledge, techniques and practices focussed upon;
3. Extent to which the proposed teaching/learning strategies and resources are sound and appropriate for the topic and target group specified;

4. Extent to which the proposed objectives and prerequisites are clear and appropriate for the target group specified, and the objectives are achievable; and
5. Likely overall value for the target group specified.

Proposals are to be written in English and must be expressed in clear, accessible and grammatically correct language.

Abstract and Justification Statement for the Proposal

Please provide the title, an Abstract and a Justification Statement for your proposal in the spaces below.

The Abstract and Justification Statement will be sent to reviewers for assessment and, if accepted, the Abstract will be included in the Conference Program as submitted, although it may be truncated if over 400 words. As abstracts are to be subjected to blind review, please refrain from mentioning authors name. Please follow the format of the Abstract Guide given below, and ensure that the abstract is correct in content, expression and presentation.

Abstract Guide

The Abstract deals with the content of the presentation or workshop you are proposing. Please describe your proposed presentation or workshop in the space below in no less than 250 and no more than 400 words. (For symposia provide an overall abstract for the symposium and abstracts for each presentation.)

Abstract for a Presentation. The content of your Abstract for a Presentation should include:

- The purpose of your presentation;
- An outline of the argument made based on the key concepts or research and evaluation methods or, where appropriate, both;
- The main findings and/or conclusions; and
- The implications for evaluation theory and/or practice.

You should keep in mind Criteria for Presentations (i) to (v) in preparing your abstract.

Abstract for a Pre-conference Workshop. The content of your Abstract for a Pre-conference Workshop should describe:

- The purpose of the workshop;
- The particular knowledge, techniques and/or practices to be focussed upon;
- The specific objectives of the workshop;
- The teaching/learning strategies and resources to be used; and
- The target group and prerequisites.

You should keep in mind Criteria for Workshops (i) to (v) in preparing your abstract.

Presentation Title: Enter the Title and the Type of Proposal for your proposed presentation or pre-conference workshop into the following box. Please spell out abbreviations and acronyms.

Title* A Development of the Instructional Quality Assurance Model in Nursing Science: An Application of Multi-Site Evaluation Approach

Type of Proposal (Mark with X)

Paper     Symposium     Roundtable     Poster     Mini Workshop

Pre-conference Workshop

Abstract Insert by 'cut and paste'.

The purpose of this present study were to develop the standard-based performance appraisal system of the private university faculty and develop competency-based pay by using result from standard-based performance appraisal system. This study was undertaken in six phases; system analysis and synthesis, system design, system verification, system implementation, system evaluation and competency-based pay approach. The samples consisted of performance appraisal report from 32 private university in Thailand, university administrator and faculty. Implementation system in 2 university; commerce and alumni association university. The instruments were a documentary record, checklist, semi-structured interview and focus group. Content analysis was used to analyse qualitative data, Descriptive statistics were used to analyse quantitative data. Factor analysis was conducted component of competency standard by using SPSS. The results indicate that this approach helps receive the information for develop the performance appraisal system for private university faculty, helps receive approach for pay that suitable with faculty competency and helps receive information for planning university strategy.

Justification Statement Guide

The Justification Statement deals with the relevance to evaluation and importance of what you are proposing as well as its relationship to the conference theme(s). Please justify the inclusion of your proposal in the conference program in the space below using between 150 and 250 words.

Please address all of the criteria in preparing your Justification Statement for a Presentation, but respond to criteria (vi) and (vii) specifically,

Please address all of the criteria in preparing your Justification Statement for a Pre-conference Workshop, but respond to criteria (i), (ii), (iv) and (v) specifically,

Justification Statement Insert by 'cut and paste'.

This research purpose of this present study were to develop the standard-based performance appraisal system of the private university faculty and develop competency-based pay by using result from standard-based performance appraisal system. Findings expected to be beneficial to add educational value for private university. Private University will receive information and approach to support performance appraisal system of private university. Standard-based performance appraisal and competency-based pay were increase generalizability of evaluation results that extend evaluation boundary.

Other Information

If you have other information that you believe we need in order to process, review or schedule this presentation or workshop, please provide it in the box below. For example, if your proposed presentation and that of another person are complementary to each other.

Other Information

Audio Visual Needs

PowerPoint facilities are provided in each room and an overhead projector (OHP) will be available on request. Your requirements for all other AV aids must be defined at this stage and will be dependent upon availability and costs. You should also indicate any AV equipment you intend to bring. You will be advised at the time of the acceptance of your Proposal whether your AV requirements can be met.

Note: It is essential that all presenters bring with them and have readily available a back up set of OHP transparencies in case of a PowerPoint or other AV failure.

AV requirements

Please list all AV requirements including PowerPoint and OHP, where applicable.

Acceptance of Expectations for Proposers

Please read the section below and cross [X] the 'Yes' button at the end of this section to confirm that you are aware of the expectations for submitting proposals to the AES 2008 Conference (If using a hard copy form please sign below).

1. I understand that if my proposal is accepted, I and, for symposia, all other presenters (not other co-authors) for the session must register for and attend the AES 2008 Conference.
2. I understand that whether my proposal is accepted or rejected, I will need to contact all other presenters and co-authors identified in this proposal and notify them of the status of the proposal.
3. I understand that each person whose contact information is provided in this proposal may be listed, with contact information, in the hardcopy and online conference program unless I contact the conference organisers prior to 31 July, 2008 and specifically request that a person's contact information not be included. Thus, I will notify each of the people listed that his or her contact information may be made public in these ways and will secure his or her permission.
4. I understand that this proposal and presenter information is expected to be accurate as submitted and that if I or any other person listed on this proposal should need to make changes they will be done at the discretion of the AES before 31 July, 2008.

I have read the above four points and understand and accept these expectations associated with submitting this proposal.

YES       NO

IMPORTANT: Finally, please review each part of your proposal. When you are confident that it is correct, submit this form via the website at www.aes2008.com.au.

After you click 'SUBMIT', you will receive an email confirmation that your Proposal has been successfully submitted together with your user ID and password. Until the deadline, you can use the online submission system to edit your proposal.

Thank you for submitting a proposal to present at the AES 2008 International Conference in Perth, Australia.