

AES 2022 – International Evaluation Conference Adelaide

Speakers: Ms Fiona Sheppeard, Michelle Wilson and Selai Storer

Aunty Lorraine Brown, Aunty Narelle Thomas, Ms Michelle Wilson, Ms Selai Storer (Coomaditchie United Aboriginal Corporation)

Professor Kathleen Clapham, Professor Valerie Harwood, Ms Fiona Sheppeard and Kaitlen Wellington (Ngarruwan Ngadju First Peoples Health and Wellbeing Research Centre, The University of Wollongong)

Sustaining Indigenous youth futures in urban and regional places, through culturally based programs: The Ngaramura "see the way" Program

Acknowledgement of Country

We acknowledge the traditional lands and waterways in which we gather on today. We acknowledge Elders past and present and all Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people present today. We are grateful to meet and participate in yarning where we share culture, knowledge and wisdom.

-
-
-
1. Introduction
 2. Aboriginal young people & education
 3. Ngaramura
 4. Place: What is Coomaditchie?
 5. Importance of Elders
 6. Impact on parents
 7. The evaluation
 8. The future
 9. Questions from the audience

Aunty Lorraine

Ngaramura and how the program works?

What is Coomaditchie and what is its significance as a place?

‘Coomaditchie’ by Lorraine Brown

The significance of Elders

How does Ngaramura help parents overcome barriers to children's success at school?

How did you conduct the evaluation?
What was your approach? What were your key findings?

a message from
Auntie Lorraine Brown
Coomaditchie

How will Ngaramura continue to influence positive youth futures?

Any Questions?

Fiona Sheppard
sfiona@uow.edu.au

Thank you for listening!

References:

www.coomaditchie.org.au

<https://www.uow.edu.au/science-medicine-health/research/ngarruwan-ngadju/>

Acknowledgement: Phil Crawford Videos; Ngaramura Kids